Re: Permit #1985
Scott's Use of the Public Pavilion at Jack London Square 2007 Report

Dear Ms. Klein and Ms. Gaut:

A schedule of Scott's use of the Public Pavilion in 2007, an analysis of their use vis-à-vis your guideline and a worksheet are attached for your review and comment.

Scott's exceeded their annual use by 46%, utilizing the Public Pavilion 107 days vs. the allowable 73 days. This left 258 days for public use vs. the required 292 days.

They also exceeded the number of weekend days/nights for private use of the Pavilion on average per month from May through October and November through December. The guideline is 33%; they utilized it 35% of the time.

They were in compliance with the minimum number of weekend days/nights (3) for public use in all 12 months.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Brian Lee
Jack London Square Marketing
